Guest Speaker Last Meeting

Anna Delano, BS/MS in TTU Mass Communication, is the Deregulation Spokesperson for Reliant Energy, here in Lubbock. Anna said that ER-COT was deregulated in 2001, meaning those Texas residents residing within the ERCOT grid can choose the company to provide electricity for their property. Lubbock is now on the ER-COT grid and most of us will choose, in October, from scores of companies that will sell us their electricity.

Anna said Reliant Energy is looking forward to serving a deregulated electricity market in parts of Lubbock.

What is deregulation?

Anna explained that areas of Lubbock will soon be part of the Texas deregulated electricity market. That means homeowners, renters and businesses will have the freedom to choose an electricity provider that's right for them. Anna said Reliant is here to help you understand what this means for you. As your electricity expert, Reliant can help you make the right choice for your lifestyle, — and since 2001, millions of Texans have chosen Reliant Energy!

Making the switch!

With competitive pricing, electricity consumers can shop from a variety of plans to find the right one for their needs. Texas Retail Electricity Providers (REPs) are responsible for selling electricity and providing bills to customers. Reliant REPS will help you!

If you choose to switch to Reliant when Lubbock's electricity market becomes deregulated, Reliant will make the transition seamless. Your electricity will continue to flow without interruption; plus, you'll get competitive pricing, innovative product offerings and helpful customer service.

Note: Reliant is one of many companies offering service in Lubbock. Educate yourself on the options available.

This education must occur annually, including providing a copy of these policies to each club member. Every Kiwanis district is expected to provide an educational forum or workshop at every district-produced convention and conference regarding policies and best practices for adults working with youth, using materials provided by Kiwanis International.
