Guest Speaker Last Week:

Lindsey Maestri, Executive Dir., Lubbock's Louise Hopkins Underwood Center for the Arts (LHUCA) gave us a comprehensive view of what we are so fortunate to have! Lindsey held similar positions in Kentucky and Tennessee before coming to Lubbock in 2018 with her husband, a TTU professor.

LHUCA began as the Lubbock Regional Arts Center (LRAC) in 1997. The City of Lubbock deeded the vacant Fire Department Administration Building to LRAC in 2000, in alignment with its goal to create an arts and entertainment district in the downtown area. A capital campaign was launched, and the facility was enlarged and renovated between 2003 and 2005. LRAC was renamed the Louise Hopkins Underwood Center for the Arts in honor of their co-founder in 2004.

Today, LHUCA is recognized as a driving force behind the downtown revitalization plan using the arts to stimulate economic development. Creating this visual and performing arts center in the heart of the future Lubbock Cultural District helped foster a thriving arts community. LHUCA has a broad-based constituency, due in part because it is the organizer of the First Friday Art Trail, a 16-year community-wide event that brings 3,000 plus people each month to the LHUCA campus. The center also partners with numerous departments at Texas Tech University, local nonprofits, and local K-12 programs. Each year, 60,000 people benefit from their programs and services. Call Lindsey: 762-8606, or go by 511 Ave. K, to donate your time or $$'s.

'Flag Day' Was a Success!

Be proud of what you & your helpers did! Our Flag Route volunteers, including family members and friends, finished our Second Flag Holiday! We put up & took down, 767 flags on 7 routes! AND: 767 x $35 = $26,845! Just think, each flag we put-up Tuesday was worth $7! Thru your dedicated efforts, we earn $5,369 each holiday we place flags throughout our city.

Bits & Pieces

How to talk to people even if you disagree?! Talk to real people instead of all that angry yelling on social media. When someone says something you disagree with, say: "I never thought of it that way!". Then think to yourself "get to know people who don't live, or don't think, like me." Just try to learn something that helps you understand a bit better why that person thinks that way. Present valid facts to the person, if you know them, but don't argue! Calmly say this is what you believe & why, and leave it at that!

Rubber Bands/Velcro Straps?

David Mallard & wife Sherry came up with a novel way of securing our new nylon flags with Velcro straps from Walmart, and he demonstrated how they work! Route Captains, consider using these, or rubber bands that Paul provided, on the new nylon flags, or any nylon flag that is hard to roll upon taking down.
