Guest Speaker Last Meeting:

Believe it or not! After David Mallard introduced his beautiful daughter Sarah Mallard Wakefield, we had a Guest Speaker! Sarah accompanied her father because it was his birthday on the 28th.

Your Editor 'Googled' Sarah Mallard Wakefield M.D., and discovered she is board-certified in psychiatry, child/adolescent psychiatry, and forensic psychiatry, and practices primarily at the TTUHSC child and adolescent psychiatry outpatient consultation clinic. She completed med school at the UT Medical Branch in Galveston and residency at LSU Health in Shreveport. She also completed fellowships in child/adolescent psychiatry and forensic psychiatry also at LSU Health Shreveport, and joined the faculty of the TTUHSC School of Medicine in 2014. She specializes in child, perinatal and forensic psychiatry & is American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology certified.

Sarah informed us of the critical need for more pediatric psychiatrists nationwide. She said there is a serious shortage of trained children's mental health clinicians in schools thru-out the U.S. TTHSC provides Teach the Teachers via Tele Help program to diagnose kids with mental health problems.

Sarah is Chair of the TT Dept. of Psychiatry since 2016, and said she assisted in developing the TX Child Health Care Consortium, that has 4 main programs: 1) Hot Line f/Children's Mental Health; 2) Perinatal/Post-Partum Depression Care; 3) Child Clinician Mental Health Incentives; and 4) Research Networks between HSCs in the U.S., esp. for Juvenile Justice, Child Trauma and Youth Suicide.

ATTENTION!

A Girl Scout event is coming up! It's called Desserts First, and will be held on September 15th from 5:30-8:00 pm in the Texas Tech Club: Westside. At this event, Sierra Kane is bringing in 13 local chefs who will create desserts inspired by, and created with, Girl Scout cookies! Chefs will compete for coveted awards that are reviewed by a 9-panel judging committee. All desserts will be paired with wines from McPherson Cellars Winery, located in Lubbock. There will be a robust silent auction where folks can shop as they meander and snack on desserts. One of Sierra Kane's favorite silent auction items is a get-away trip to a ranch resort on the East rim of Zion National Park, in Utah, at a place called Zion Ponderosa. It's going to be a fabulous event!
